Age group and Interleague Updates inc Cups Rounds

Tables attached to these minutes with cup draws

U18's- John Hutchinson reported that everything was ok in the League and match cards were coming in. Greenmount are to reported to the R & C committee for not turning up at FSC, K and F.

Richard Dearden (U18's Interleague manager) reported that they had not played due to the game being called off at Westhoughton. The U18's play again on the 12th Aug at Tonge C.C.

U15's Barrie Cryer handed out a league table but had not received all results these were given to him on the evening and an up to date table is attached. See also reported that Farnworth had not turned up at Heaton. The R&C committee will be informed.

U15's Interleague games have not started yet.

U13's John Hutchinson reported that everything was ok in the League and Bradshaw shared the top place with Horwich. The U13's Interleague lost their second game at Horwich and it was reported that the boys seemed nervous.

U11's Ian Cavill reported that several games had not taken place and he was not receiving the results, the secretary asked him to send a list and he would send out to clubs. The U10's Interleague had played 2 games verses the Heavywoolen league and had won one and lost one with the final game being played on the 5th Aug. Also the U11's Interleague will play on the same day at a venue 200 metres away. Heaton qualified for the LKO.

U16's LCB Festival The Central Area won the festival this included players for the Bolton area.

Rained off fixtures

Clubs all agreed that Junior General Rule 27 "replay of fixtures" be waived for this year. All were in favour.

Rules

The Secretary reminded clubs to start thinking about changes for season 2008 and inform him in writing so he can distribute to clubs for discussion at the next available meeting.
