7. Interleague – Age group Reports

U18's – JH Reported that the match cards where coming in OK and gave out the latest league table. He was delighted to see Farnworth playing U18's now but was disappointed that Horwich had only played 1 game out their first 6. It was asked if Horwich should be allowed to play in the Cup. This was passed to the RC committee to make a decision. The Interleague said won their first game and it was asked for the team to be published in the BEN. JH will see to this point.

U15's – BC reported that his cards where also OK and gave out an up to date table. Interleague side playing the Bolton Association in the Michael Roache, WH, BC to sort team.

U13's – SL reported his card where also OK and gave out the latest table. The Interleague side was doing well under Mr Clitheroe and their next game is verses the Saddleworth League.

U11's – IC reported that most cards had come in and he would inform the committee at the next meeting those team in contention for the Walkden tournament. Horwich have qualified for the Lancs KO and they play a Southport League Club.

MON 13 JULY

Semi Final Mervyn Porter Trophy

HORWICH v HEATON
EAGLEY v WALKDEN

Lancashire Knockout Nomination from Bolton Cricket League 2009 – Egerton

Explanation of how above nomination was chosen - (Rule 23 Rules of Junior Cricket)

As at 26th May 2009 the following clubs had won both games played (I have included Heaton as they won the only game they could play – due to Farnworth not playing at this age group):

Bradshaw (130 – 82, 86 – 83 = 216 / 165) 1.30

Egerton (139 – 20, 43 – 41 = 182 / 61) 2.98

Walkden (123 – 92, 69 – 66 = 192 / 158) 1.21

Heaton (63 – 59 = 63 / 59) 1.06

UNDER 13s.

AFTER 3 GAMES.
